PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP (Leader, People) Based on Psalm 36 Hannah Braun

How far does the steadfast love of the Lord extend?

To the heavens and beyond!

How far does the faithfulness of God reach?

To the clouds and beyond!

The righteousness of God is mightier than the mountains,

And the light of God grants life and light eternal!

What should we do to honor our great and glorious God?

Let us worship God!

*HYMN #401 Here In This Place GATHER US IN

CALL TO CONFESSION Hannah Braun

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of grace, you have given us Jesus, the light of the world, but even so, we find ourselves clinging to things of this world, things that hide the radiance of your love.

Immersed in ourselves, we have not risen to new life nor have we lived into the calling you have set aside for us.

Baptize us with your Spirit, merciful God, so that we might rise, forgiven and renewed, to share the Good News near and far, and to tell of your glory shining through Christ, our Lord and our light. (Silent Prayer)

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

*RESPONSE #581 Glory Be to the Father GLORIA PATRI

*PASSING THE PEACE

The peace of Christ be with you!

And also with you!

(As the children come forward, take a moment to share words and signs of peace and reconciliation with those who are near you, across the sanctuary and online.)

RESPONDING TO THE WORD

DECLARATION OF FAITH (Apostles' Creed) Dr. Reinink

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE & THE LORD'S PRAYER Hannah Braun

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name,

Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

POSTLUDE

On the Cover: The Maestra Peace Mural by Alicia Juana, Miranda Bergman, Edythe Boone (and their community of artists) was started as a community protest art piece in the mid-1990s and finished in 2000 (with restoration in 2012). The massive mural is featured in countless travel, art, and history publications serves as a visual history of the “who’s who” of women across history who have worked to change the world by using their gifts, skills, positions, and influence to change the world by contributing to their communities. This mural stands to proclaim that the gifts of women have always been, and always will be, central to our collective strength and wellbeing.

The "you/your" mentioned in every stanza is never identified, but this 1979 hymn is clearly a corporate prayer to God on behalf of the diverse congregation who have assembled for worship, longing to be transformed and used as God's witnesses and for God's purposes.

 it shall be no longer mine.
 Take my heart, it is thine own;

 it shall be thy royal throne.

6 Take my love; my Lord, I pour
 at thy feet its treasure store;
 take myself and I will be
 ever, only, all for thee,
 ever, only, all for thee.

This hymn of consecration radiates from the repeated word "take," resulting in a remarkably full survey of a person's attributes and possessions and giving weight to the "all" at the end. The composer of the tune was influential in the renewal of Reformed hymnody in French.

The first three words of this text appear in the website address for First Presbyterian Church of San Anselmo, California, for whose centennial the hymn was commissioned. The text draws on Ephesians 4:11-16, a passage describing the many gifts and ministries within the body of Christ.
